

Meeting of Town Board of Trustees.
At a called meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Town of Troy, held at the office of the chairman of said Board, on Friday, July 22, 1878, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an all-wise and merciful God to inflict upon the inhabitants of our town that dreadful scourge cholera, and to remove from our midst many of our most worthy and esteemed citizens, therefore be it resolved,

1. That we humbly bow to this sad infliction of Divine Providence, and commend to his special care our bereaved fellow citizens.
2. We return our grateful thanks to the citizens of Troy for their hearty co-operation in carrying out and enforcing the sanitary measures adopted by this board for the cleansing and disinfecting of the town.
3. That in looking back over the dark and sad time during which the dread monster was in our midst, it is a great source of comfort to know that all of our citizens vied with each other in ministrations of mercy to the sick and afflicted, and in their deep sympathy and condolence with their bereaved fellow citizens.

4. In behalf of the citizens of Troy we tender our warmest and grateful thanks to the corps of nurses, who so faithfully, fearlessly and zealously ministered to the sick and dying, and recommend to our citizens that, as a token of our esteem, the town present each one of said nurses with a medal properly inscribed.

5. We especially commend to the lasting gratitude of our town the physicians of our town who have stood by us in the time of our sore affliction with a constancy and devotion never surpassed, and whom we are proud to say promptly heeded and answered every call.

6. It is the pleasant duty of the board to inform our fellow citizens generally, that there is not now a single case of cholera in our town or vicinity, and it is our ardent and sincere hope and belief that the cholera has entirely subsided.

7. We cordially invite our fellow citizens of the county to make glad once more our town by their presence, assuring them that it is our earnest conviction that their health will be as safe here as elsewhere.

8. As a wise and christian people it behooves us to study this infliction of Divine Providence, that we may be reminded constantly, "that in the midst of life we are in death."
WM. FRAZIER, Chairman.
GEO. W. COLBERT, Clerk.

THE FARMERS' FRIEND.—Double force feed Grain Drill is ahead of all the greatest improvement of the age, the only drill that can be changed while seeding, without taking off cog wheels; zigzag or single rank; can be changed to sow from one quantity to another without stopping the team. Call and see them before purchasing. Every drill warranted to give entire satisfaction, or money refunded.

HALL NEW SALEM LODGE A. F. & A. M.
NEW SALEM, MO., July, 1878.

WHEREAS, Man has his appointed time in life to labor, as represented in the three degrees of Masonry: In youth, the spring time of life, to equip and prepare himself for the great battle of his future; in manhood to rear and carefully educate and instruct the younger, that they may become useful in constructing and building the political, financial and moral architecture of the world, and finally to prepare himself for the call of our Grand Master; and

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty Ruler of the Universe in His infinite wisdom to call from our midst our late beloved brother, JOHN M. BIRKHEAD; and

WHEREAS, We bow and submit with reverence to His will, in Whom we put our trust, be it

Resolved, That we acknowledge in the demise of our late beloved brother the loss of a good and true man and Mason, who served our craft with fervency and zeal, and with honor to the fraternity, and who, having successfully and diligently accomplished the preparatory degrees, has at last gone to occupy the position in the Grand Lodge, from whose bourn no traveler returns.

Resolved, That it is with oppressed hearts and broken spirits that we express our sorrow and grief at the loss of a brother who was plucked from our fraternity, depriving it of one of its pure lights, from his beloved wife, to whom he ever proved a faithful husband and protector, from his darling children whose existence he ever doted upon, leaving them to battle with life in this cold world without the advice and aid of a father; from the world and all mankind, where he ever appeared as a man of honor, a good citizen and a moral being, charitable to the needy and faithful to all.

Resolved, That we extend our condolence to the widow and orphans of our departed brother, and assure them of our untiring assistance hereafter.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolutions be handed to the widow, with the seal of the lodge attached, and that the same be published in the Troy Herald.
